

HSRP

Hot Standby Router Protocol, or HSRP, is when servers have access to 2 internet lines with access to multiple ISPs and routers, providing redundancy in the event of a failure on one line. This configuration is offered with our colocation solutions, with power redundancy also available to provide complete redundancy.